

North Central Regional Center for Rural Development Faculty Fellow Program

The North Central Regional Center for Rural Development (NCRCRD) Faculty Fellows Program supports approximately two Fellows each year. Only faculty from Land Grant Institutions in the North Central Region are eligible for the Faculty Fellows Program. The NCRCRD Faculty Fellows collaborate with the NCRCRD to pursue research and/or outreach that benefits the North Central Region. The normal period of appointment is one year. An NCRCRD Faculty Fellow is awarded $25,000 which can include salary, fringes, and travel. Faculty Fellows may collaborate virtually with NCRCRD staff. Proposals are accepted on a rolling basis. Faculty interested in applying to the NCRCRD Faculty Fellows Program should submit a proposal to Dr. Maria Marshall, Director of the NCRCRD at mimarsha@purdue.edu.

Proposal Guidelines

I. Cover Page

The cover page should include the applicant's name and title and a project summary (250 words max).

II. Project narrative

Format: 3-pages (max), 1.5 spaced, 12-point font, 1-inch margins

The project narrative should include, but is not limited to, discussion of the following points:

- What you propose to do?
- How you propose to do it? Be sure to discuss how you are uniquely qualified to conduct the project.
- Why is the project important to the North Central Region?
- What benefits will the project produce for you, your home institution, and NCRCRD?
 - Outreach: What impact do you expect from your project? How do you expect to use the experience?
 - Research: How will results be disseminated (publications, conferences, presentations, joint collaborations, etc.)
